

1. About your account

The registration to the game can be done by creating your own User/Euronaut account. You shall comply with the terms of use to register.

- ✚ Choose a nickname as a username to become a Euronaut.
- ✚ Do not share or allow others to use your password.
- ✚ You are solely responsible for all your use of your account, and for all of the communication and activity in connection with the game.

2. About material copyrights

Parts of the Eurocraft game allow you to upload content and publish it.

- ✚ Upload content (including images, texts, sounds, music, videos, etc.) that you either own or you have all rights.
- ✚ Use images or material licensed under “Creative Commons” accompanied by corresponding references to their sources.
- ✚ Make sure to either hide the faces in pictures or to have the consent/permission of your parents or people depicted to publish photos.

Eurocraft respects copyright law and expects its users to do the same. It is our policy to terminate an account in appropriate circumstances.

3. Conduct while playing the game

We want people use Eurocraft to express themselves in order to communicate cultural heritage with others and to share content that is important to them, while protecting the safety and well-being of others. Thus, through this game, users should follow certain standards of behaviour.

You agree to respect others and their point of view or ideas.
Always be a good cyber citizen.

You agree not to:

- abuse, threaten, or otherwise harass others;
- upload, write, comment, transmit, or otherwise make available any unlawful, inappropriate, or false content;
- promote or engage in discrimination, racism or harassment against any individual or group;

You are solely responsible for your interactions with other users of the game.

We reserve the right, but are not obligated, to remove or disable access to any content, at any time and without notice, including but not limited to, if we, at our sole discretion, consider any content to be objectionable or in violation of these Terms.

To help support our game, we encourage you to report content or conduct that you believe breaches your rights (including intellectual property rights) or our terms and policies. (eurocraft.vidmaps@gmail.com)

The terms affect your legal rights and obligations, so if you do not agree to these Terms and our Privacy Policy, please do not use “Eurocraft” game.
